- 3.6 The Company shall not be liable for any non-delivery of Goods (even if caused by the Company's or its contractor's negligence) unless written notice is given to the carrier and the Company within 14 days of the date when the Goods would in the ordinary course of events have been delivered.

- 3.15 The Company may deliver the Goods by separate instalments. Each separate instalment shall be invoiced and paid for in accordance with the provisions of the Contract.
- 3.16 Each instalment shall be deemed to be a separate Contract and no cancellation or termination of any one Contract relating to an instalment shall entitle the Buyer to repudiate or cancel any other Contract or instalment.
- 3.17 The Buyer shall (and shall procure that each of its subsequent customers of the Goods shall):
- (i) maintain the Goods safely and in satisfactory condition at all times when in its possession, including ensuring the Goods are stored, kept, handled, transported and used so as to ensure they remain in a good state of conservation and in compliance with the Specification;

 - (v) inform the Company as soon as possible if it becomes subject to any Events of Insolvency (as defined in Condition 10.1(xi)); and

- 4.4 Notwithstanding Condition 4.3, the Buyer may resell Goods before ownership has passed to it solely on the following conditions:
- (i) any sale shall be effected in the ordinary course of the Buyer's business at full market value;
 - (ii) any such sale shall be a sale of the Company's property on the Buyer's own behalf and the Buyer shall deal as principal when making such a sale and not as the Company's agent; and
 - (iii) title to the goods shall pass from the Company to the Buyer immediately before the time at which resale by the Buyer occurs.
- 4.5 If, at any time before title to the Goods has passed to the Buyer, the Buyer informs the Company, or the Company reasonably believes, that the Buyer has or is likely to become subject to any Event of Insolvency (as defined in Condition 10.1(xi)) and the Goods remain in the possession or control of the Buyer, the Company may (without limiting any of the Company's other rights and remedies):
- (i) require the Buyer, at the Buyer's expense, to redeliver the Goods to the Company; and
 - (ii) if the Buyer fails to do so promptly, enter any premises where the Goods are stored and repossess them.
- 4.6 The Company shall be entitled to recover payment for the Goods notwithstanding that legal and equitable title to and ownership of any of the Goods has not passed from the Company.
- 4.7 The Buyer grants the Company, its agents and employees an irrevocable licence at any time to enter any premises where the Goods are or may be stored in order to inspect them, or, where the Buyer's right to possession has terminated, to recover them.
- 4.8 Where the Company is unable to determine whether any particular Goods are goods in respect of which the Buyer's right to possession has terminated, the Buyer shall be deemed to have sold all goods of the kind sold by the Company to the Buyer in the order in which they were invoiced to the Buyer.
- 4.9 The rights of the Company contained in Condition 4 shall survive termination of the Contract (howsoever caused).
- 5. Price and Payment
- 5.1 Subject to Conditions 5.2 and 5.3, the price for Goods shall be the price set out in the Company's Price List current at the date of order acceptance (taking place in accordance with Condition 2.3) plus any applicable delivery or other charge (per Condition 2.2).
- 5.2 The price for Goods is exclusive of any value added tax or any other applicable tax which the Buyer shall pay in addition when it is due to pay for the Goods.
- 5.3 If there is an increase in the Company's costs of supplying any Goods, the Company may increase the prices of such Goods at any time by giving the Buyer not less than one week's notice in writing prior to delivery. If the Buyer does not agree with any increase in price notified in accordance with this Condition 5.3, then the Buyer may terminate the Contract, in relation to such Goods only, by giving the Company not less than three days notice, such notice to expire no later than the date on which the price increase was due to take effect, provided always that the Buyer shall accept delivery of any Goods that form part of the relevant Contract in respect of which a notice under this Condition 5.3 has not been given.
- 5.4 The Company may invoice the Buyer for the Goods at any time after delivery (taking place in accordance with Condition 3.2).
- 5.5 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payment of the price for the Goods is due in cleared funds and clear of any bank charges on the 20th of the month following the month in which the invoice is issued. Time for payment by the Buyer shall be of the essence. The Company reserves the right to stipulate that payment is made by the Buyer using a particular method of payment and reserves the right to refuse to accept payment by cash or cheque.
- 5.6 All payments to the Company under the Contract shall become due immediately upon its termination (howsoever caused) despite the terms of any other provision.
- 5.7 The Buyer shall make all payments due under the Contract without any deduction or withholding whether by way of set-off, counterclaim or otherwise unless the Buyer has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid by the Company to the Buyer.
- 5.8 If the Buyer fails to make any payment under the Contract on the due date then (without prejudice to the Company's other rights and remedies):
- (i) the Company may charge the Buyer interest (both before and after judgement) on the amount unpaid at the annual rate of 2.5% above the base rate of the Central Bank of Ireland, compounded monthly, until payment is made in full (a part of a month being treated as a full month for the purpose of calculating interest). The Buyer shall also pay any reasonably incurred costs of collection in relation to such unpaid amounts; and

- (ii) the Company shall be entitled to refuse to accept any further orders for Goods and suspend all deliveries for Goods pursuant to the Contract.
- 5.9 The Company reserves the right not to carry out, or no longer carry out, orders or agreements if previous deliveries have not been paid for by the Buyer or if, in the Company's reasonable opinion, the Buyer has not fulfilled, or is at risk of not fulfilling, its obligations to the Company.
- 5.10 Where prices in the Price List or these Conditions are denominated in Euros, it is agreed that that reference is to the single currency adopted by member states in accordance with the Treaty on European Union ("Euro(s)", "€").
- 5.11 Only if the Buyer is prohibited by operation of law from paying any amounts denominated in Euros in that currency shall it be entitled to make payment in an alternate currency. If the Buyer does make payment in an alternate currency in accordance with this Condition 5.11, it must account for and make good any exchange rate variance between that currency and the Euro in its payment, calculated at the date payment is made.
- 6. EXCLUSION & LIMITATION OF LIABILITY, SEVERABILITY AND BUYER'S INDEMNITY
- 6.1 The following provisions and Conditions 3.6, 3.7, 3.10, 3.11, 3.12 and 3.13 set out the entire liability of the Company (including any liability for the acts or omissions of its Affiliates, employees, agents and sub-contractors) to the Buyer in respect of:
- (i) any breach of these Conditions; and
 - (ii) any use made or resale by the Buyer of any of the Goods, or of any product incorporating any of the Goods; and
 - (iii) any representation, statement, tortious act or omission (including negligence), arising under or in connection with the Contract.
- 6.2 All warranties, conditions and other terms implied by statute (except for the conditions implied by section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1893), common law, arising by course of dealing, trade use or otherwise are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from the Contract.
- 6.3 Nothing in these Conditions excludes or limits liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, for any matter which it would be illegal for the Company to exclude or attempt to exclude its liability, or for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 6.4 Subject to Condition 6.3, the Company's total liability in contract, tort (including negligence and breach of statutory duty), misrepresentation, restitution or otherwise, arising in connection with the performance or contemplated performance of the Contract shall be limited to the price paid or payable (net of VAT) for the Goods that are the subject of the Contract.
- 6.5 Subject to Condition 6.3, the Company shall not be liable to the Buyer by reason of any representation or any implied warranty, condition or other term or any duty at law or under the express terms of the Contract for any indirect, consequential, incidental or special loss or damage, costs, expenses (whether or not the Company has been advised of the possibility of such loss, damages, costs or expenses), or any claims for consequential compensation, howsoever caused (including without limitation caused by the negligence of the Company or its employees, agents or sub-contractors), which arise out of or in connection with the Contract;
- 6.6 Subject to Condition 6.3, the Company shall not be liable to the Buyer for any of the following:

- 6.7 The Buyer holds harmless and indemnifies the Company on demand against any and claims, demands, actions, proceedings, fines, penalties, awards, compensation, settlements, professional costs and charges which the Company incurs as a result of claims of third parties for damages which have been caused by or are otherwise connected with any Goods delivered by the Company (including without limitation claims made against the Company in its capacity as producer of the Goods pursuant to product liability) arising directly or indirectly from the Buyer's breach of any of its obligations under the Contract or negligence, unless such damage is caused by breach of contract, negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of the Company.
- 7. Packaging and traceability of Goods; use of trade marks, signs and other indications
- 7.1 All of the trade marks, service marks and logos displayed on the Goods and any referenced document or website (the "Trade Marks") are registered and unregistered trade marks of the Company and its Affiliates, or third parties who have licensed their trademarks to the Company and its Affiliates. Unless agreed otherwise in writing, the Buyer is not permitted to use the Trade Marks or any other signs or indications used by the Company to distinguish its products from those of other businesses, with the exception of trading the Goods in their original packaging on which Trade Marks, signs and other indications have been applied by the Company (or its Affiliates). If the Goods are resold, this provision shall also be imposed upon the Buyer's own buyer and to any

- subsequent buyers. The Buyer shall not reproduce, display or otherwise use any Trade Marks without the Company's prior written permission except as permitted under this Condition 7.1.
- 7.2 The Buyer shall not change, remove or alter any Trade Mark, corporate or trade name, label, bag tag, or any indicia of any intellectual property right of any nature whatsoever from the packaging of the Goods, unless expressly agreed upon by the Company in writing or otherwise permitted by law.

- 8. Product Recall
- 8.1 The Buyer shall immediately notify the Company if it becomes aware of any complaint or claim which indicates that a product supplied by the Company may be defective, faulty or unsafe in any way, including if the Buyer becomes aware of or is the subject of a request, court order or other directive of a governmental or regulatory authority to withdraw any product supplied by the Company from the market. The Buyer must send to the Company:
- (i) a copy of the complaint or claim, and any correspondence exchanged with the complainant or third party; and
 - (ii) details of the product supplied, the batch and serial number of the product (or other marking to aid traceability), the date on which the product was supplied by the Company to the Buyer, and the date on which the Buyer supplied it to the complainant (or other third party).
- 8.2 The Company has the right to initiate a product recall and/or any other corrective action which it deems necessary and appropriate, without requiring agreement from the Buyer. Any decision relating to the implementation of a recall or corrective action shall be made at the Company's discretion. The Company also has the right to notify any appropriate regulatory bodies about any such recall or corrective action, identify the Buyer, and discuss the activities of the Buyer.
- 8.3 The Buyer shall provide the Company with the assistance and information that it may reasonably require in order to implement a recall or corrective action. This assistance shall include the provision of any information which may be required to allow the Company to identify third parties who purchased affected products from the Buyer, and any steps taken by the Buyer to notify those third parties and implement a recall or corrective action.
- 8.4 At the Company's request, the Buyer shall immediately cease using, delivering and distributing any products specified by the Company. The Buyer shall place these products into quarantine until the Company confirms whether they should be returned to the Company or whether they are suitable for use or onward sale.

- 8.6 The Buyer is required to keep and maintain, for at least ten years following last supply of the product, appropriate records to enable all products supplied by the Company to be traced. These records shall include serial and batch numbers (or other marking to aid traceability), delivery dates and, in case of resale, details of the party who purchased the products from the Buyer. The records which are kept must be sufficiently thorough to allow a recall of the products or corrective action to be effectively and efficiently implemented by the Company.
- 8.7 Subject to the Company's prior agreement to such costs and provision of evidence of costs incurred which is reasonably satisfactory to the Company, the Company shall bear all reasonable costs incurred by the Buyer in relation to implementing a recall of products supplied by the Company, unless the problem which necessitated the recall was caused or contributed to by the Buyer (whether negligently or otherwise).
- 9. Force Majeure
- 9.1 The Company shall not be liable to the Buyer in any manner or be in breach of the Contract (subject to Condition 6.3) because of any failure or delay in performance of any of the Company's obligations under the Contract arising from or attributable to a Force Majeure Event.
